THE AUTHOR

Jack Rollin was a soccer columnist for the Sunday Telegraph for twenty-one years, worked on BBC's Match of the Day, has written and compiled more than sixty books including twenty-seven editions of Rothmans Football Yearbook. He is the soccer consultant to the Encyclopaedia Britannica.

The British Library's A Football Compendium said: 'Jack Rollin's classic Soccer at War 1939–45 provides an extremely comprehensive account of one of the lesser known eras of soccer's rich history.'

In 1975 he won the Designers and Art Directors Association Silver Award for the outstanding specialist feature of the year, the Radio Times World Cup Special.

PREFACE

The third edition of Playfair Football Who's Who contains career details of all players who appeared during the 1998–99 season in the FA Carling Premiership, Nationwide Football League and Bank of Scotland Scottish Premier League, plus Hibernian, the club promoted from the Scottish League First Division. The book also includes players in England who were contracted to clubs in the four English divisions who did not make appearances. Players' information includes date and place of birth, height and weight where known, playing position, League appearances and goals scored, source and main honours achieved. Appearances include those made as a substitute. Players with foreign clubs who have an asterisk * beside the team name indicates that club was outside its leading division that season.

The author would like to thank Glenda Rollin for her much valued contribution, Alan Elliott for Scottish League information and Gavin Willacy for England Schoolboy International details. The author also wishes to acknowledge the co-operation of Mike Foster and Jonathan Hargreaves of the FA Premier League, and Debbie Birch, Louise Standing and Andrea Stock of the Football League. Once again a special mention for Lorraine Jerram of Headline Book Publishing, whose invaluable input and support was much appreciated.

The Football League welcome Cheltenham Town to the Third Division in 1999–2000. The club's Nationwide Conference appearances and goals can be found on page 442 and there is a Stop Press for summer transfers on pages 441 and 442.

FOREWORD

The third edition of Playfair Football Who's Who, by Jack Rollin, maintains the long tradition of excellent football books produced by Headline, publishers of Rothmans Football Yearbook and Playfair Football Annual.

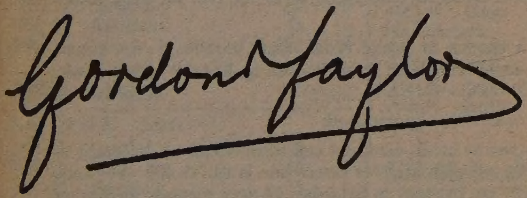
It is a difficult task these days to keep up to date with the changing face of personnel at clubs with the ever-increasing cosmopolitan nature of the game and Jack Rollin is to be congratulated on achieving this task successfully. There are precise details of professional players in England, Wales and Scotland which can be found by quick and easy alphabetical reference and the book provides all the information necessary for a football factfinder and devotees of fantasy football.

Playfair Football Who's Who will prove an invaluable help to all administrators, managers, soccer writers and supporters of football throughout the United Kingdom and will occupy a prominent place on my desk and I do not hesitate to recommend it.



Gordon Taylor,

Chief Executive, The Professional Footballers' Association
